

THE WHY

Direct Resin Restorations are the workhorse for the General Dentistry Practice.

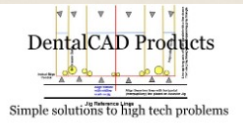

Multiple times a day you will be required to use it, but it's applications are far and wide. Not all situations can be approached the same way.

With this hands-on you will learn how to tailor the benefits of various materials to focus on what is needed for the task at hand. Learn how the materials, the process, the techniques can all add up to efficient beautiful restorations.
